Spam Policy

In order to provide the best possible business opportunity for everyone Nutronix has adopted a Zero Tolerance Spam Policy. Nutronix does not condone or engage in Spam and does not tolerate Spam of any sort. Distributors are strictly prohibited from Spamming. Any report of SPAM in violation of these policies will be considered grounds for immediate termination.

What is SPAM?

SPAM is any electronic message which is directed toward a person(s) who has not requested the information through a VERIFIABLE "opt-in" process giving their permission to be contacted. SPAM comes in many different forms and includes, but may not be limited to:

- 1) Unsolicited electronic communications (e-mail);
- 2) Bulletin boards, user groups or instant messaging services to individuals or businesses who do not know you personally;

- 3) Opt-out lists where a person is specifically required to request removal from a mailing list in order to prevent solicitation;
- 4) Hiring a company that is mailing out to a list of people with your opportunity that did not specifically request to receive your information beforehand (third party bulk e-mailing);
- 5) Promoting your site on FFA (Free For all) sites and similar programs which have a high risk of generating SPAM complaints due to the nature of the program. Many people who put their links on FFA sites don't realize that the tons of e-mail they get is simply a result of posting their links, then they complain of SPAM;
- 6) Faxes which are unsolicited by the recipient are also considered SPAM;
- 7) Any SOLICITED mass communications (as with Opt-in e-mail lists) which do not contain the required instructions for unsubscribing and removal from the list;
- 8) The use of a mailing list in which the recipient's e-mail, ISP, and other personal information was "harvested" electronically when they visited the site;
- 9) SPAM can be a single e-mail or a bulk mailing, so it can include your own list if the e-mail is sent to a recipient who would not have a reasonable expectation of receiving e-mail from you.

Simply put, an e-mail is SPAM if it has been sent to an address that was not requested from you. Receive permission first before adding anyone to your e-mail list. You must not send SPAM via our service or send SPAM that in any way implicates our services (i.e. using Nutronix, Nutronix Plus, or any other Company generated URL).

Just remember this ' SPAM is an issue about CONSENT, not CONTENT. It doesn't matter if the message is your offer to join the Nutronix business, if it was sent UNSOLICITED or you cannot VERIFY that you received the recipients' permission to send it, OR your message is "OPT-IN" but you don't include an "OPT-OUT" method in every communication, then it is SPAM.

All SPAM complaints are taken seriously. SPAM is a negative form of advertising and will not be tolerated in any form. If you willfully violate our Spam Policy you will have your web site terminated immediately, without a refund.

Nutronix reserves the right to determine what constitutes a violation of our Spam Policy.

If you are not sure whether your intended method of promoting Nutronix conforms to these standards, do not engage in it.
